Mayor Dave Harris' Retirement Celebration

Thank you to Dave Harris for his 24 years of service as the Hulmeville Borough Mayor! The community celebrated his many accomplishments at a retirement gathering on December 8, 2017. There were many in attendance that shared in the good fun and laughter during all the speeches and citations that were presented!

Without the help and support from many, this event would not have been a success!

A special thank you to the following:

- William Penn Fire Company for the use of the hall and services
- Cesare's Ristorante in Bristol for the buffet of delicious food
- Marce & Joe Heald for the generous celebratory cake
- Jeff Lavin from the Hulmeville Inn for his contribution of brews
- Bob VanDoren for his countless photos and videos
- And to all attendees who brought the tasty appetizers and desserts

Family

Congratulations to the 2017 youth volunteers for Hulmeville Borough:

Hulmeville Borough continually appreciates the contributions made to our borough by youth volunteers and each December, honors them at the borough meeting. Pictured with council members are the youth volunteers for 2017 (l to r) front row: Stanley Omiotanski, Sarah Omiotanski, Ryan Idell, Taylor Glass, Arden Galvelis, and Becky Harger.

Mackenzie Simon (inset photo) was not able to attend the meeting but received her award at a later date.

Congratulations to Hulmeville Borough's first Junior Council Person:

Sarah Omiotanski attends Neshaminy High School and knows that serving as a JCP will help to give teens a voice in our community and hopes to inspire her classmates to become involved in their communities.

Hulmeville Centenarian Joanne Buckman 11/5/1917 to 11/29/2017

Mrs. Buckman often said that her children were the most important thing in her life! Wife of the late George Ross Buckam, Mrs. Buckman is survived by her children George & Margie Ross Buckman, Jr., Jack & Marie Buckman, Elizabeth Jane Buckman & Mark Machevske, and Barbara Buckman Strasko; her grandchildren John Benjamin Buckman, Gina Buckman, Randy Lanning, Ross Strasko, Shawnee Soto Ortiz and many nieces and nephews.... All of whom she loved very much.
